

HRH Queen Elizabeth II (1952-)

Queen Elizabeth II is Queen of Australia. She is the constitutional monarch, which means she acts on the advice of the Australian Parliament. She is also Queen of the United Kingdom and Head of the Commonwealth.

Parliament House in Canberra is on the flip side of the $5 note. Built in 1988, the building design is based on two boomerangs and has an 81 m flagpole on the top. It has 4,700 rooms, most of which are open to the public. It is situated on Capital Hill.

The Governor-General, appointed on advice from the Australian Prime Minister, is her representative in Australia. The Governors in each state also act as her representatives.

The Queen offers patronage to many organisations. She holds many titles in the Australian Armed Forces and undertakes ceremonial roles in Australia.

Queen Elizabeth II's coronation was in 1952. She has visited Australia multiple times between 1954 and 2005.

The $5 note

Answer to

Who is on the

What is she

Name where

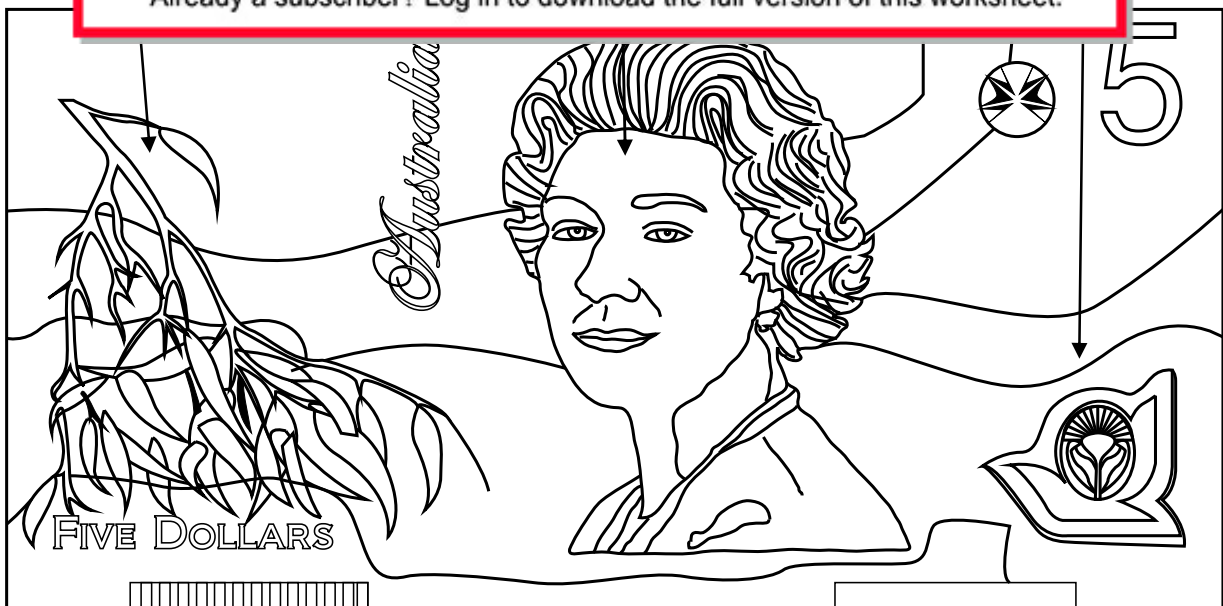

This is a

PREVIEW

Subscribe today for a whole year's access to ALL our worksheets and videos!

Already a subscriber? Log in to download the full version of this worksheet.

Colour the picture to match the real $5 note.

N.B. Teacher: display a real note or photo if possible as a guide.

ANSWERS

Money - Recognising the Australian $5 Note

HRH Queen Elizabeth II (1952-)

Queen Elizabeth II is Queen of Australia. She is the constitutional monarch, which means she acts on the advice of the Australian Parliament. She is also Queen of the United Kingdom and Head of the Commonwealth.

Parliament House in Canberra is on the flip side of the $5 note. Built in 1988, the building design is based on two boomerangs and has an 81 m flagpole on the top. It has 4,700 rooms, most of which are open to the public. It is situated on Capital Hill.

The Governor-General, appointed on advice from the Australian Prime Minister, is her representative in Australia. The Governors in each state also act as her representatives.

The Queen offers patronage to many organisations. She holds many titles in the Australian Armed Forces and undertakes ceremonial roles in Australia.

Queen Elizabeth II's coronation was in 1952. She has visited Australia multiple times between 1954 and 2005.

The $5 note

Answer to

Who is on t

What is she

Name wh

This is a

PREVIEW

Subscribe today for a whole year's access to ALL our worksheets and videos!

Already a subscriber? Log in to download the full version of this worksheet.

Colour the picture to match the real $5 note.

N.B. Teacher: display a real note or photo if possible as a guide.